The Bequest of Alexander Cochrane

BY the will of the late Alexander Cochrane, a Trustee of the Museum since 1913, the Museum received a portrait of Governor Sullivan by Gilbert Stuart, and the right to choose four other pictures from Mr. Cochrane's collection. The Museum has selected the four paintings illustrated on these pages. The portrait of Governor Sullivan will be reproduced in a later issue. The Museum is grateful for the opportunity to add to its collection a notable American portrait, a fine example of Corot, two pictures representing the later development of Monet and an unusual Renoir.
